

FAQ - How to Run a Super Bowl Squares Fundraiser for Casey's Clubhouse

Q: How do I collect the money for the squares?

A: That's entirely up to you! You can accept cash, checks, or payments through apps like PayPal or Venmo. To keep track of payments, simply write "paid" or "pd" next to each person's name on the squares sheet.

Q: How do I get the donation to Casey's Clubhouse?

A: There are several ways to send the funds:

- Use Casey's Clubhouse Venmo or PayPal accounts.
- Write a check and mail it to us.
- Stop by the office with cash.

We recommend avoiding online credit card donations due to associated transaction fees.

Q: Do I have to charge $20 per square?

A: No, the price per square is entirely up to you! Just make sure to sell all 100 squares to complete the board. Adjust the payouts accordingly if you set a different price. We've seen successful fundraisers with squares priced as low as $5 or as high as $100. For charity pools, it's common to donate half of the proceeds to the charity, but the split is ultimately up to the organizer.

Q: What happens if I don't fill all 100 squares?

A: No worries—you don't have to cancel the game! If there are unsold squares, you can assign those to Casey's Clubhouse. Adjust the payouts based on the number of squares sold, and the remaining squares now give the charity a chance to win additional funds if one of those hits.

Example:

- 70 squares are sold at $20 each, creating a $1,400 pot.
- $700 goes to Casey's Clubhouse.
- The remaining $700 is divided as follows:

- 1st Quarter: $125
- Halftime: $150
- 3rd Quarter: $125
- Final Score: $300
- The 30 unsold squares are assigned to Casey's Clubhouse. If a charity square wins (e.g., 1st Quarter), the $125 is added to the $700 donation.

Alternate Option: Leave unsold squares blank. If a blank square wins, the payout rolls over to the next prize. Example: If the 1st Quarter payout of $125 lands on a blank square, the Halftime prize increases to $275. If the Final Score payout hits a blank square, that prize is donated to Casey's Clubhouse.

Let the fun begin, and thank you for supporting Casey's Clubhouse!
